A Lot of Charm Packed Into a Small Footprint. Designed for a builder who needed a great solution for his smaller lots, the Greenwood has proven very popular with those needing a lot of usable space combined with a lot of curb appeal in a small area. Formal and informal living and dining spaces plus a surprisingly big kitchen grace the main floor, while a spacious master suite plus three secondary bedrooms and a bonus room are found upstairs. Upper balcony overlooks to the foyer and center hall bring drama and light into the heart of the home. The façade offers a graceful composition of gables, shingles, shutters and trim.
